Art Unit: 1724

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-11 and 17-20, drawn to a fluid treatment module, classified in class 210, subclass 284.
- II. Claims 12-16, drawn to a method of making a fluid treatment module, classified in class 210, subclass 542.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product of Group I could be made by another process, different from that of Group II. For example, this module could be manually filled with the treatment material (i.e. by removing one of the porous components, filling the cell with treatment material, and replacing the porous component) instead of utilizing a carrier fluid to introduce the treatment material through the channel.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1724

In addition to the above restriction requirement, and election of species is also required. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

(A) Porous component species (e.g. plastic membranes, metal membranes, woven fabric, non-woven fabric, etc.);

(B) Treatment material species (e.g. filtration material, adsorbents, extractor material, etc.); and

(C) Introducing species (e.g. pressure gradient, shaking, packing, etc.).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed porous component species, a single disclosed treatment material species and a single disclosed introducing species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1, 6, 7, 12 and 17 appear to be generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that are elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, Applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, Applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 1724

Should Applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, Applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
